If Lincoln county offices are non-political now, why were they not non-political in 1870, when the Republicans nominate a full ticket?

If the race for the county Judgeship is not a political one, why are all the prominent Radicals of the county in the field against the Democratic nominee? and why is the Radical party a unit against him?

Way did the Republicans nominate a full ticket for county offices in 1870, if it was not with the bope that the addition of the negro yote to their party in carrying the flag over the planty has fallen during four years of inactivity.

The effort of our opponents to seduce Democrats from the true line of party fit was not with the bope that the addition of the negro yote to their party.

How many Democrats are now pledged to support the Republican candidates for the county Judgeship, who in 1879, as they first witnessed the sweet, included a speciacle of negroes exercising the right of sufferage, solemly vowed never cy and Radicalism; and true Democrats a stupenduous work and enterprise, or note for a Republican for any office, under any circumstances, for reasons not deceasing to mention here?
